

THE STANDING COMMITTEES

Were Announced At the Meeting of the Commercial Club Friday Night.

FIVE COMMITTEES WERE NAMED

Entertainment Features For Summer Season Were Discussed. The Factory Propositions

At the meeting of the Commercial Club at the city building Friday night the members of the standing committees were announced. They were appointed by the president and directors. Five committees were appointed, the members being: Finance—C. D. Billings, Lynn Faulkner, J. M. Shields, B. F. Schneck and Henry Heckman. Membership—George Huber, Fred Able, Harry Miller. Entertainment—J. F. Shiel, Frank Voss, John Ross, G. G. Graessle, L. R. Fosgate. Factories—C. E. T. Dobbins, N. ufman, W. L. Johnson, T. S. Blish, Bert Ahlbrand, Mort Hodapp, Charles Sauer. Transportation—Ed Massman, J. T. Jones, S. L. Cherry, Theo. Groub, L. A. Ebner.

The location of factories was discussed. The directors reported that it had been decided to give the one acre of land asked for by the Ohio man who was here recently looking over the field with the view of starting a furniture factory.

No final word has been received from him, but as he has relatives here and was well satisfied with the city it is expected that he will locate here. J. T. Jones, Pennsylvania agent submitted a letter received from the general freight agent of that line. The letter stated that a Massachusetts motorcycle manufacturing company is looking for a location for an automobile factory in the central west. The head man of the concern will be in this section soon and the club was advised to take up the matter with him.

Entertainment features for the season in Seymour were discussed. A plan was presented for providing special entertainments for the farmers each Saturday. It was proposed to bring prominent lecturers here to lead discussions of agricultural subjects. The matter was referred to the entertainment committee.

W. L. Johnson stated that there was a feeling among some of the business men that a street fair here during the summer would be a good thing, special attention to be devoted to displays of farm products.

To Young People.

I consider the Seymour Business College a great opportunity for our young people, and I feel that I cannot speak in too high terms of it. In my experience with other business colleges, I have yet to find one to equal it for thoroughness of instruction, culture and refinement. Public school teachers can soon prepare themselves here to teach in business colleges and thereby double their salaries.

F. B. MITCHELL IS PROMOTED

Has Been Appointed Superintendent of the Illinois Division of B. & O. S-W.

RAPID RISE OF OFFICIAL

Who Is a Resident of Seymour.—His Second Promotion Recently.

Announcement has been made that F. B. Mitchell who is a resident of Seymour, has been appointed superintendent of the Illinois division of the B. & O. S-W., effective April 1. The official who has been in charge of the division has resigned.

The promotion of Mr. Mitchell is only another step in his rapid rise on the road. It is his second promotion recently. The first of March he was appointed an assistant to superintendent under the general superintendent, with headquarters at Cincinnati. He was assigned to special duties.

As he was on the road much of the time he did not change his residence from Seymour. His last promotion however will necessitate his removal to Flora, Ill. where his headquarters will be.

Mr. Mitchell came to Seymour as trainmaster of the Indiana Division, January 1, 1911. Prior to that time he had been assistant trainmaster on the Ohio Division.

He is about thirty-two years old and began his railroad work thirteen years ago as clerk in the superintendent's office at Washington. Later he was secretary to D. D. Carothers while the latter was superintendent of the Chicago division and holding other positions. He then went to the General superintendent's office at Cincinnati, being in charge of equipment. Following this his rise was rapid.

Being still a young man his chance for advancement in the railroad world is considered unusually bright.

Looking For Trouble.

The chief of police at Columbus is laying up trouble for himself in advocating a dress reform scheme. The Columbus Republican says:

When the Indiana legislature meets next January it will perhaps be asked to pass a bill drafted by Chief of Police Stanley J. Cooper, which will have to do with dress reform in the schools of the state, as it applies to girls. At any rate, Chief of Police Cooper, who taught school for a number of years, has such a bill in mind, and is in the mood to ask the legislature to enact such a law. Chief of Police Cooper would have the dress of the school girls of the state radically reformed from the present form and especially does he believe that this is imperative with the dress of the high school girls of the state.

His plan is to have a uniform dress for the school girls of the state and he would have the school girls wear clothing that would cover their arms, their throats and that part of their breasts that is now left exposed even in the most severe weather. He would also have the girls wear common sense shoes and stockings consistent with the seasons. Chief of Police Cooper says that he has learned by observation that the school girls of this city, and the same is, of course, true of the school girls of the state, for it is fashion's decree, are thinly and even dangerously clad while going to and from the schools, and on the streets, and that too, in the most severe weather. Their arms are bare to the elbows and sometimes higher, their throats and a considerable section of their breasts are bare, and not infrequently it is observed that the girls leave their coats open, apparently for the purpose of showing that they are braving the severe weather thus thinly clad. Some of the school girls Chief Cooper says he has observed appear on the streets in severe weather wearing poms and stockings that are almost if not quite transparent.

WELL ORGANIZED

Police and Detective Force of the B. & O.

Many persons do not understand how well organized is the police or detective force on the B. & O. It was organized eleven years ago to protect company property and the traveling public.

B. & O. police officer says that many people think that the life of a railroad police officer is easy and that all he has to do is to run in train cars. This is erroneous. The task of a train rider is to keep the train safe from thieves and to keep the train on time.

Of course to keep men from riding trains often means in a large number of cases removing them from chances to break into cars and steal. And in many cases where trainriders are left unmolested, they invariably try to break into cars. Therefore it is always best to remove the innocent train rider from temptation as well as the "crook" who rides trains for that object.

Then also there are criminals who take advantage of freight and passenger trains in getting away from the scene of their crimes. We are constantly being asked by city policemen to look out for certain men who are known to be desperate criminals. If it was not for this organization, such criminals would escape. Some important catches have been made between this city and St. Louis.

Aside from arresting trainriders, however, each B. & O. patrolman has his territory of railroad property to cover and must hold himself at any and at all times subject to the call of his lieutenant to go out on a case either for investigation or apprehension. He may have to wait night after night in all kinds of weather for something to turn up and he will be constantly falling into those risks, dangers and unpleasantness that are the lot of all policemen.

The B. & O. police organization is headed by Supt. G. A. Agline of Baltimore.

A captain is the chief B. & O. police officer on the division. Under the captain are one or two lieutenants and from five to twenty patrolmen. In this way the B. & O. preserves law and order on its territory. The captains' headquarters of the various divisions are at St. George, Staten Island, N. Y., Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cumberland, Grafton, Parkersburg, Wheeling, Connorsville, Pittsburg, New Castle, Junction, Newark, Chicago, Garrett, Ind., Chillicothe, Cincinnati and Washington.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can? For sale by all dealers.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

LOVE'S COUNTERFEITS.

Another harebrained youth, smitten by a girl who rejects him, follows the girl, nags her, makes her life a torment, then kills her.

It is called a "love tragedy."

A weak souled woman whose vanity is played upon or whose trivial grievance is fostered by an affinity is persuaded to leave her husband and children and run away.

It is called a "love story."

Or a man of family deserts a good wife and children, leaving a heritage of shame, and goes philandering with some foolish miss who has infatuated him.

He is "blinded by love."

To paraphrase the utterance of Mme. Roland, "O love, what crimes are committed in thy name!" Many so called love affairs are libels on love.

Love is more than infatuation. Love is more than passion or desire. Love is, first of all, clean. And love will protect its own and not kill it. Love will die to save the loved one. Love puts above all else the happiness of the loved at the sacrifice of self. It is the divinest thing known to humans.

Love seeks not its own.

It flitches nothing from honor.

It rejoices in purity.

It endures forever.

Love is more than sentimentality. Its language is not the speech of the silly, so called "love letters" read for the delectation of the multitude in the divorce courts.

The speech of genuine affection may sometimes be betrayed into the word of extravagance or impulsive expression, but it is never the language of insincerity. The stuff of which many love speeches are made is the veriest froth on the cup of affection.

Being divine, love abides.

Love must keep its own forever and a day. It is stronger and sweeter when the wrinkles mar the face of the loved one, when the hair is silvered and the frame is bent, than in the younger days of the cheeks' rounded contour and the body's stately carriage.

Love seeketh not its own. Unselfishness is its essence. Love sacrifices, denies itself. It is long suffering and kind.

Call you that love which deceives, which lures for its own desire, which brings dishonor, which turns its back upon those who should be dear, which brings humiliation and shame and remorse?

That sort comes up from the depths.

True love comes down from above.

MICHIGAN CITY IS IN FOR WAR ON SALOONS

General Cleaning In That Direction Promised.

Michigan City, Ind., March 30.—The city to seventy saloon keepers here under indictment since early in the winter for various violations of the liquor laws, received a hard jolt when a jury of the superior court convicted Ambrose Yorkey of selling liquor to minors. Indications are that others will plead guilty, as half a dozen did at a previous term of court, rather than pile up expenses of trials. More than 150 indictments remain on the docket.

It is the intention of Prosecuting Attorney Smith to "clean up" the saloon situation in Michigan City. Two girls and two young men under age were sold liquor in Yorkey's place Oct. 1. They had made the rounds of various saloons and their arrest in the roundup of their carousal resulted in a sweeping grand jury investigation.

NOT SO, HE SAYS

Charged With Highway Robbery, Bushay Pleads Not Guilty.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 30.—Fred Bushay, arrested on a charge of highway robbery, and who is said to have confessed a number of holdups, pleaded not guilty when arraigned. His plea came in the nature of a surprise, as it was generally believed he would throw himself on the mercy of the court.

The police say Bushay also confessed that he was the bandit who fired several shots at the engineer and fireman of a Vandalia train, several weeks ago.

Muncie, Ind., March 30.—Traction traffic east of Muncie for forty miles has been abandoned because of high water. Both steam and electric roads in all directions have been troubled by floods.

Floods Are Spreading.

Hazleton, Ind., March 30.—White river is now covering thousands of acres of the higher bottom land and drowning out wheat fields that were not touched by the rise in the winter.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 30.—Over a hundred divorce suits have been filed in this city since Jan. 1.

Indianapolis, March 30.—Patrolman John McKinney, who was shot by his partner, Arthur T. Moore, is barely alive, and it is not believed he can recover. Moore is under arrest charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, and is held without bond. McKinney told the officers that Moore shot because he had called him a liar, and without warning or provocation.

Gave the Orators a Chance.

Washington, March 30.—An old-fashioned tariff discussion with Democrats on one side denouncing protection and Republicans on the other defending it, marked the opening debate on the Democratic wool revision bill.

Official Crow Killer.

William Williams, a Mitchell man, has been designated by the United States as official crow killer, and is authorized to furnish the Government crow gizzards at the rate of fifty per month for one year.

He has also an optional contract to furnish a like number of English sparrows' gizzards. The gizzards are to be used in work that is being carried on by the Agricultural Department with a view of determining the economic value of the birds.

Williams will get his supply of crow gizzards from the big crow roosts northeast of Mitchell, where the birds gather at night by the thousands for roosting purposes. Five cents per gizzard is the price to be paid Williams.

Accused of Blackmail.

Fell Under Big Four Train.

ARE GOING NORTH.

Wild Geese Have Begun to Fly North.

In many cities sportsmen get out with shotguns and use them on the fowls as they fly over the cities at night. The law relative to shooting at night is very specific on that subject. The section of the law in question reads as follows:

"Whoever shoots or kills, or pursues for the purpose of shooting or killing, or whoever has in his possession any wild goose, wild duck, brant or other water fowl at any time from the 15th day of April to the 1st day of September of same year, or whoever at any time, between sunset of any day and sunrise of the following day, shoots, kills, pursues for the purpose of shooting or killing any wild goose, wild duck, brant or other water fowl so shot, killed, possessed or pursued."

From the above section of the law it can be plainly seen that the persons who shoot the geese which pass over at night or even those who have attempted to kill the geese, have laid themselves open to a fine. The law prohibits the killing of water fowl between the hours of sunset and sunrise was enacted to protect the fowl during roosting time. This is the open season for water fowl and the law permits their being killed during the day time.

If you have trouble in getting rid of your cold you may know that you are not treating it properly. There is no reason why a cold should hang on for weeks and it will not if you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by all dealers.

Making Trouble In the Islands.

Representative William A. Jones of Virginia has started to make trouble for the Americans in the Philippines. He has introduced a bill to grant a qualified independence for the islands, beginning with July 4, 1913, to be made absolute after July 4, 1921. During those eight years, under the Jones measure, the islands would be under the quasi-control of the United States, but would, in a considerable degree, be master of their own affairs. They would have a president appointed by a president of the United States, and subject to confirmation by the United States Senate, for a term of four years, and subject to removal by the president, and would have a two-branch Congress, to be chosen by the people of the islands, by a limited suffrage, the president there, as here, having a veto power over legislation. After eight years the islands would cut loose indefinitely from the United States.

This proposition is impossible. It may pass the House, with its strong Democratic majority, but it cannot go through the Senate. If it should, by any chance, pass that barrier it would be halted by the president. Nevertheless Mr. Jones is pushing a joint resolution to ask the president to enter into negotiations with England, France, Japan, Russia and Germany to secure a joint agreement guaranteeing their independence and integrity. As Jones is chairman of the House Committee on Insular Affairs his proposition will attract some attention. Unhappily, it will attract particular attention in the Philippines.

The country remembers the outbreaks among the Filipinos which were incited a few years ago by Mr. Bryan's crusade for their independence. American soldiers were attacked even in the ordinarily peaceful part of Luzon, risings of some magnitude took place in many of the other islands, and the Moros in the Jolo end of the group went on the warpath. Even in the big towns isolated Filipino fanatics ran amok and murdered many Americans, civilian and military. The authorities in the islands suddenly found their labors rendered particularly arduous, and the government at Washington was seriously embarrassed. The military forces in the islands were enlarged, and the government at Washington was seriously embarrassed. The military forces in the islands were enlarged, and the government at Washington was seriously embarrassed. The military forces in the islands were enlarged, and the government at Washington was seriously embarrassed.

Jones mischief making will have a similar effect unless the military men on the ground take immediate and vigorous action to quell uprisings in their beginning. The cable has already carried the news of Jones' folly to Manila, and it will soon find its way to the remotest islands of the group.—Globe Democrat.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. The offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials.

Held A Reunion.

There is an expression often heard from those who go up and down the world that he who sits for thirty minutes on the veranda of Shephard's hotel, at Cairo, Egypt, is certain to see some one he knows. William G. Irwin, a local banker, who is abroad, registered at Shephard's and supposed there was no one in a thousand miles that knew him. "It certainly looks good to see a Hoosier over here," said a voice, and when Mr. Irwin looked up he saw John E. Lamb, of Terre Haute, standing by him. Later the two men met Arthur Grover, of Indianapolis, at the same hotel, and the three Hoosiers promptly had a reunion.

John W. Sickelsmith, Greensboro, Pa., has three children, and like most children they frequently take cold. "We have tried several kinds of cough medicine," he says, "but have never found any yet that did them as much good as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." For sale by all dealers.

Mohammedans and Education.

The founding of a Mohammedan university seems a wise move, for Mohammedans in India are prone to neglect higher education. Out of the 13,875 graduates who have taken the degrees of the University of Calcutta since its foundation, only 675 were Mohammedans. Forty-five colleges which are affiliated with the Calcutta university employ 459 professors. Excepting some chairs of Persian and Arabic, not a single appointment is held by a Mohammedan professor or lecturer. In the colleges of western Bengal there are 6,500 Hindoo students, as against 494 Mohammedan students, while in the secondary schools the Mohammedan pupils number less than 10,000, as against 74,500 Hindoos.—University Correspondent.

MINERS OBEY STRIKE ORDER

Anthracite Mines Emptied of Tollers This Afternoon.

PROPER COURSE TO PURSUE

This is the Opinion of the Men Behind the Picks, Not One of Whom Can Be Found to Declare Otherwise—Strike Order Found All in Readiness at the Mine Mouths For an Indefinite Suspension of Work.

Cleveland, O., March 30.—A general suspension in the anthracite coalfields affecting 18,000 union miners was ordered today by President White of the United Mine Workers. The men will quit work April 1, pending a referendum on a general strike. The operators and miners in the soft coal districts reached an agreement whereby the suspension in the soft coal fields will be of short duration.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 30.—President John P. White's order for a suspension of all work in the anthracite fields on April 1, found the miners prepared, and as a unit they will walk from the chambers this afternoon ready to stand by the national leaders and fight out their demands with the operators. The decree of the national president came as no surprise here. It was momentarily expected, and in anticipation of it men have dismantled to some extent the works for the past few days. Over 10,000 men have already left the collieries.

Secret mass meetings of the miners have been called for tonight. At these meetings the order of President White will be formally announced. At Nazareth, Plymouth, Edwardsville and the lower sections of the anthracite fields, the men will meet to receive the decree of their chief executive. It is impossible to find miners who do not declare that it was the proper course to pursue.

Another conference between the anthracite operators and the miners is likely, which may avert the threatened strike in the anthracite fields.

DARING BANDITS

Auto Robbers Make Descent on Bank in Broad Daylight.

New Rochelle, N. Y., March 30.—What is thought to have been an attempt to rob the National City Bank of New Rochelle was frustrated yesterday afternoon by Oscar W. Opsann, superintendent of the building, who grappled with three men and was roughly handled himself. The fight was witnessed by a large number of people in the bank and in the street, who were attracted by screams of women depositors. At a few minutes past 1 o'clock, just before the bank closed for the day, a large auto without a license number, dashed up to the bank. There were five men in the car. Three of them jumped out with open cutlasses in their hands.

Each man held one hand in his pocket. Opsann, who was standing in the doorway, suspected that they intended to rob the bank and barred their way. One of the men attacked him, while the others attempted to push by. The fight lasted less than two minutes. One of the men dropped a revolver as the three backed away from Opsann, climbed into the auto and drove toward New York at high speed.

Election Secured by Fraud.

Washington, March 30.—Charles C. Townshend of the Eleventh Pennsylvania district, a Republican, will lose his seat if the house concurs in a report ordered by the committee on elections. A vote of four to two the committee held that the election of Mr. Townshend was accomplished by "gross frauds," and it recommended that he be unseated.

Taft at Philadelphia.

Washington, March 30.—President Taft left Washington this afternoon for Philadelphia, where he will speak tonight before the Ohio society and before the chamber of commerce. He is expected to answer some of Roosevelt's recent speeches.

CRISTABEL PANKHURST

Missing British Suffragette, Supposed to Be in America.

London, March 30.—A letter from Cristabel Pankhurst, the militant suffragette, who is under indictment for conspiracy in the window smashing cases and who has been missing for several weeks, was read at the meeting at Albert Hall last night, but it gave no clue to her whereabouts. The police are inclined to believe that she is in the United States, where she has relatives.

PENSION LEGISLATION GOES TO CONFERENCE

Senate Substitutes McCumber for Sherwood Bill.

Washington, March 30.—The senate last night, after a debate of eight hours, rejected the Sherwood dollar-a-day pension bill, which carried an additional expenditure of $75,000,000, and adopted Senator McCumber's substitute measure, which is based on both age and service, and which will increase the pension expenditures approximately $27,000,000 annually. The vote on the McCumber substitute was 44 to 21, and on the final passage of the bill as substituted, 51 to 16. The Sherwood bill had already passed the house and the pension legislation will now be thrown into conference.

AN EDITOR'S TROUBLES

Looney, of Rock Island, Stands to Be Held by Postal Officers.

Chicago, March 30.—John Looney, editor of the Rock Island News, in which the publication of an article attacking Mayor Schriver incited the recent riots in Rock Island, will be taken into custody by postoffice inspectors within a few days, it was stated at the federal building here. Looney will be charged, it was asserted, with sending libelous and improper matter through the mails. He may be brought to Chicago, it is said, soon, as he has sufficiently recovered from his wounds received in a fight with Schriver after his arrest in Rock Island.

A New Job For Weyler.

Madrid, March 30.—It is again asserted that General Weyler will soon be in supreme command of the Spanish operations in Morocco, where severe fighting again has broken out.

IN TOUCH WITH FASHION

Blouses for Spring Wear—Low Necks and High Necks—Cuffs of Lace—Little Details That Count

A DECADE or more ago, there arose in the land a woman who had judgment far beyond her time. Her plea was for the gown that was hung from the shoulders, thus making the shoulder relieve the back. In those days skirts were five and six yards around, and the back was the burden-bearer. She was not successful on the whole, for the craze for the wasplike waist was at its height, and woman had not learned that "truth was beauty." But the seed sown then has sprouted and grown, and now women will have nothing but the one-piece gown. Its ever-increasing popularity is plainly evident. Not only is it demanded in trotters, but in evening gowns, reception gowns, and in fact in everything that comes under the name of gown. Whereas, it took the woman of olden times an hour to dress herself, we now dress in twenty minutes. It expedites matters, not having the belt, and having no collar and various other accessories to pin, hook, or button on.

Tailored Suit and Blouse.

The separate blouse still has its place with the tailored suit, however, for the two together form a combination too serviceable to abandon. Some of the blouses that the spring has brought out are of the thinnest, most transparent material—ethereal is the only adjective for them. The one substantial thing about them is the price. The materials most favored are organdie, chiffon cloth, mousseline, and batiste. Most of the blouses open down the front, and the opening is often made invisible by a hemstitched ruffle that is the same width all the way down, varying from the graduated side ruffle that was used last summer. Tucks are much in evidence, of varying sizes, and often combined with box plaits. Lace is a prime favorite for trimming, and of all laces Cluny seems to lead in popularity, though Irish is by no means slighted. Cream Valenciennes is pretty for low collars and for frills. Some of the prettiest blouses have high-boned stocks of lace and long sleeves with lace cuffs—and just as many have round or "V" necks and elbow—or three-quarter sleeves. Many of the tailored blouses have the applied pocket, and some of the new linen skirts have pockets on the side. The pockets on coat suits also are of the applied, or military type.

Collars and Cuffs.

On some of these low-necked waists are large sailor collars edged with lace, the lace coming well down over the shoulder seams. Many of the collars are pointed, and extend to the waistline in the back, an effective style for the broad-shouldered, and one that slim women should eschew, because it tends to emphasize slowness. Frills of lace are also still worn with the Dutch necks—after all, how slowly fashions change! Wasn't it in the year of grace 1908 that one first began to see those little round frills on the Dutch necks?

Sleeves for the blouses of thin material are put in with a few gathers at the top, while in the silk and linen tailored waists the sleeve is inserted as in a man's shirt. A waist in process of making was shown this week, with the revelation that the sleeves were stitched in before the under-arm sleeve was sewed up, seam and sleeve being then finished with one stitching.

The fad for cuffs is aesthetic enthusiasm well spent. Nothing makes a prettier dress accessory when rightly handled. All sorts of cunning touches peep out at the wrists of the long-sleeved blouse, both in close-fitting lace cuffs and in fluffy frills of Valenciennes.

Jabots and Bows.

Fortunately, since it is one of the most effective toilet details ever devised, the jabot we shall continue to have with us. With the jabot, even the plainest blouse can be made lovely.

But styles are changing in jabots. Instead of being one-sided as during the winter, they will be two-sided. They are worn with stocks and collars, and there is a wide range of effects to choose from, both in point of material and in shapes. It is to be hoped that the square jabot effect will not be striven for too violently. Spreading out a little rabat until it reaches from ear to ear only spoils what might be a pretty rabat and can't be a pretty jabot. One of the prettiest jabots seen on the avenue was made of Valenciennes, and the butterfly had been taken as its model. It winged out from the bib very gracefully and dropped into a point. Another beauty was long—extended all the way to the waist line, in fact—and was narrow. Some of the lace frills that are put on black satin stocks are made of exquisite lace. They just miss being as pretty as the all white.

DISTINCTLY POPULAR JABOT OF "BUTTERFLY" STYLE.

Bows, too, are especially fascinating this spring. They are dressed-up bows, plaited edgings of Alencon net adorning them, or little satin rosebuds dangling from their folds.

CLOSING IN ON GENERAL AUBERT

Leader of Mexican Federal Forces In Peril.

GEN. OROZCO IS IN PURSUIT

Leader of the Chihuahua Rebels Has His Campaign Against His Former Chief So Well in Hand That It Is Considered but a Question of Hours Until Victory Will Be Perching on His Banners.

Villa Lopez, Mexico, March 30.—The federal command of General Aubert managed to extricate itself and get away after being caught in a trap and seemingly surrounded on all sides by the Liberals pounding a terrible artillery fire into his ranks. In doing so the general left behind one heavy cannon, one mortar, two machine guns, 500 horses and 20,000 rounds of ammunition. The cannon and machine guns are in good condition. In effecting his escape he left fifty dead and many wounded. He also left many stores behind.

General Luis Fernandez's rebel column is still in behind him and unless Aubert meets reinforcements he likely will be captured soon with his forces. It is the purpose of General Orozco to pursue. To that end preparations are being made to entrain reserves for a sub-base which has been maintained at Escalon, while the main column parallels the railroad tracks in pursuit of Aubert in his flight to the southward.

The rebels were victorious in the three days' battles with Aubert, but were much disappointed in their failure to capture the general and his forces and eliminate them as a menace in the campaign against Torreón. With the ammunition captured from Aubert's command there is no fear that the Liberals are in danger of running short.

It was only darkness that assisted Aubert in making good his escape. His men have been up and at it for four days now and are fatigued and worn out. The Liberal officers on the field say that he cannot possibly hold out much longer, as he is out of ammunition and shells.

Heavy shells poured into the village by the Liberals played havoc with the houses. The Liberals are fleeing in all directions, many having thrown their guns and cartridges away, and these are being taken up by the pursuing Liberals.

The battle of Villa Lopez was the most stubbornly contested of the present revolution. The bombardment was something frightful and the losses in killed and wounded among the federalists was great because they followed old-fashioned tactics and fought in solid formation, while the Liberals fought in open order. Many federal prisoners were taken. They were all disarmed and sent to Jimenez under guard, while their arms and ammunition were turned upon their late comrades.

General Campa's men in searching the battlefield near Escalon found the remains of Captain Jose Allesco Robles, brother of the police inspector of Mexico City. Cards and letters addressed to that name were found in his pockets.

The campaign against Parrell is depending more or less on the outcome of Aubert's movements. In case he is captured, Generals Orozco and Salazar will send 1,000 men to march on the town.

AUBERT SLAIN

This is the Word That Has Been Received in Mexico City.

Mexico City, March 30.—General Pancho Francisco Villa, the former bandit, who declared his loyalty to President Madero and has been fighting the rebels in Chihuahua, has been caught at Jimenez and executed, as General Orozco promised he would be. General Aubert, the federal commander, has been killed by the explosion of a rebel shell. His body was cut in two. General Salas was buried in Dolores cemetery with full military honors. President Madero and a great throng of people attended the funeral.

Among the killed at Jimenez was Major Nicholas Martinez, chief of staff under General Salas. General Blanquet was also seriously wounded and is being brought to the capital for treatment. The most prominent officers and the larger part of the federal troops have been killed or wounded in the fighting at Jimenez.

A band of Zapatistas under Martin Herrera took the town of La Antigua in the state of Vera Cruz. They carried off all the funds of the town. General Zapata is making preparations to lay siege to Puebla.

Mexicans Led by American.

Austin, Tex., March 30.—General Aubert, who is in command of the federal forces near Torreón, Mexico, is an American and was born and raised at Quincy, Ill., according to a statement made by Charles E. Aubert, a well-known citizen of Austin, who is General Aubert's brother. General Aubert went to Mexico twenty years ago and entered the army.

All reports indicate a most disastrous flood in the Mississippi valley.

MRS. MAUD B. BOOTH.

Volunteers of America Leader
Advocates Pay For Convicts.

Indianapolis, March 30.—Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth, who is known among thousands of convicts as "Little Mother," was the principal speaker before the Southern Indiana Teachers' association. Her subject was prison work, and she told many pathetic stories of prison life and the efforts of prisoners to reform their lives. Mrs. Booth was introduced by Albert J. Beveridge.

ARMS DISPATCHED TO PROTECT AMERICANS

Yankee Colony In Mexico City In Grave Peril.

Washington, March 30.—So far as foreigners are concerned the long anticipated crisis in the Mexican revolution is near at hand. No attempt is made now by the United States authorities to conceal the grave concern that is felt in Washington. The latest reports from Mexico indicate that the revolutionary movements are rapidly gaining strength and that the federalists are being defeated in their most important engagements. The few soldiers left in the capital and the large lawless element that exists there has made it expedient for this government to take prompt steps to provide for the protection of its citizens there. Accordingly 1,000 Krag-Jorgensen rifles and 1,000,000 rounds of ammunition, provided by the war department, are now being dispatched to Mexico City. This action was taken with the consent of the Mexican government, which has guaranteed the delivery of the arms and ammunition to the American legation, once it has been landed at Vera Cruz.

Ambassador Wilson is being held by the state department as personally responsible for the disposition of these weapons. Only American citizens who are registered with either the embassy or the consulate will be allowed to draw them. They will be for use by these citizens only for purposes of defending their homes or places of business against invasion.

Officials deny that this action of providing arms and ammunition for citizens in Mexico City is preparatory to intervention. They declare it means just the contrary. They hold that the lawless or other elements would be slow to attack Americans when they learn they are armed, and as long as Americans and their property are safe there is no danger of this government becoming actively engaged in Mexico.

TEDDY'S TRAVELS

Big Crowds Greet the Colonel in the Northwest.

St. Paul, Minn., March 30.—Ex-President Roosevelt's reception here was an enthusiastic one. He was greeted by crowds. Swinging through Iowa and Minnesota, stump speaking from the rear platform of his special train, the colonel made nine speeches, not including the two big meetings he had in St. Paul and Minneapolis. The crowds that greeted him through the country in these two states were good-sized crowds and quite demonstrative. The colonel left here for Detroit at 10:30 last night.

Gradually Rounding Them Up.

Mt. Airy, N. C., March 30.—The capture of Friel Allen, son of Jack Allen, is another development in the deal that will at least save him from the electric chair. The entire force of officers and detectives are in the mountains for the purpose of rounding up the two remaining outlaws.

Missing Girl Found.

Hemmond, Ind., March 30.—Miss Emma Waltz, aged sixteen, who has been missing from her home for a week, was arrested at Dyer. She was dressed as a boy, and was with John Diltz, wanted on a charge of horse stealing. Diltz declared Miss Waltz was his "son."

Suicide of a Widow.

Anderson, Ind., March 30.—Mrs. Elizabeth Groves, aged fifty-four, a widow of this city, committed suicide. Her husband, W. A. Groves, a stock buyer, died a short time ago, and since then she has brooded over his death.

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS

BY
REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

THE QUESTION OF THE AGES.

Text: "If a man die shall he live again?"—Job xiv, 14.

Larger question never found its way to human brain. "If a man die"—no need of Scripture or philosophy to prove "it is appointed unto man once to die." Sir Walter Scott wandering through the streets of exhumed Pompeii matters over and over again, "City of the dead." Well could he mutter the same wandering through our city streets. Builders of our blocks, founders of our establishments, writers of our books, "long ago were dust." Country lane and city street all lead to one spot—the cemetery. The world's shuttles fly fast to weave crape for every doorknob. The world's emblem not a lily, but skull and crossbones. One vehicle stops before hut and mansion—it is known by its black plume. No Euclid needed to prove all things are passing.

If we were not here yesterday and won't be here tomorrow, where are we going? Job is on the dismal ash heap, sick of the world that now is, wondering if there is yet another to come, trying to read a guidebook in the dark, in the teeth of the gale endeavoring to light his torch. "If a man die shall he live again?" is his piteous cry.

Question Upon Question.

What is man—an organ or an organism, violin or violinist, boat or boatman, house or tenant? What is life—water poured on ground, no hope of getting it again? Is it a shadow, here this moment, gone the next? Is it a cloud of mist, in the heavens now, dissipated when the sun rises? Is it a thread in a weaver's loom broken, cut? Will some skillful hand gather the ends together? Is it a pilgrim's tent, if taken down may be set up again? What is the grave—a door or a blind window, an entrance or an exit, the way down or the way up? Do we go to the grave or through the grave? Is it the beginning or the end, the rising curtain or falling? Don't ask nature—

"That inverted bowl we call the sky, Whereunder crawling, coop'd, we live and die;

Lift not your hands to it for help, for it As impotently moves as you or I.

Strange if there's only three score years and ten! The elephant may live 200, the giant redwood 2,000. Phidias constructed the Parthenon 2,400 years ago. Phidias lived but seventy-two. Is the Parthenon greater than Phidias? Does the design live and the designer die? Praxiteles chiseled Hermes 300 years before Christ. Is the sculpture immortal and the sculptor mortal? Is the work greater than the worker? Is "Evangeline" greater than Longfellow? Does the thought live and the thinker die? John Howard-Payne wrote "Home, Sweet Home." Does the song live and the singer die?

The Great Riddle.

In his brief walk from cradle to grave man outlives ten bodies, changes bone system half a dozen times, replaces brain fiber every six months, yet he knows friends of fifty years ago, and they know him. What holds that constant flux of matter in a continual identity of form? Must be a fixed identity within. Can that be what Paul meant, "There is a physical body, and there is a spiritual body?" What is it that thinks—brain or I? Is the gray matter in the skull? Does it secrete thought "as the liver secretes bile?" Is this column of words and sentences so much glycerophosphate, sodium or oxygen, or—hold firm rein, my soul—I am I the charioteer, with wondrous vehicle and blooded steeds? O thou eternal One, thy likeness calls! I have a body; I am a soul. Desires are prophetic. What means this gnawing hunger for the beyond, this eternal homesickness of the soul? Never homing pigeon felt surer sense of direction, never robin call of sunnier clime. It must be so, Plato; thou reasonest well!

Signals of Hope.

"Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead?" But with what body? I know not nor care. Nor does grub in ooze of creek bed know of dragon fly's body. Nor does caterpillar understand its translated mother, the butterfly. Nor can deaf and dumb make blind comprehend glories of sunset. Let him argue who will. "Isn't proved that way! I've gone down to the beach with a mother. I've given last greeting, smiled through rain of tears. I've seen anchor weighed, harbor bar cleared, fluttered a farewell, watched the glint of snowy sail as it passed through Golden Gate on to the bosom of a great eternity. And I've seen and known of others, a mighty army yesterday, many going today.

Part of the host has crossed the flood, And part are crossing now.

Day is breaking over Judean hills. There's a glint of fire tipping the temple and palace. A mist hovers over the distant Jordan. A little company of disciples is hurrying through Jerusalem's half awakened streets. Amazement and joy sit on every face. They bring a message concerning their crucified Lord. Listen, ye sad visitants of Greenwood, Mount Auburn, Laurel Hill, Lone Mountain and village graveyard, listen! "He is risen; he is not here!" "If a man die shall he live again?" Surely! Dying is simply going home.

For, though from out the bourne of time and place The flood may bear me far,

I hope to see you here, I hope to see you here,

When I have crossed the bar.

ISAAC HUFFMAN.

Ohio Senator Who Was Indicted on Bribery Charge.

Columbus, O., March 29.—After twenty-four hours' deliberation the jury in the bribery trial of Senator Isaac E. Huffman of Butler county reported its inability to agree and was discharged. Huffman's was the fourth trial to result from last spring's graft disclosures in the legislature. There was one acquittal and two convictions. Senator Huffman's chief defense was an alibi in which he was supported by three colleagues.

ROCK ISLAND IS NOT YET OUT OF WOODS

Despite Presence of Militia Feeling Grows.

Rock Island, Ill., March 29.—Today the crisis that will decide whether Rock Island is to be given to wholesale violence or peace must be met by this soldier-guarded city. Mob leaders who led the assault upon the city hall Tuesday night have been identified and will be taken by force if necessary to the coroner's inquest. Along with them will be many of their followers. In the list of witnesses to be called are the most dangerous element in the city and those who are credited with instigating all the trouble that led to bloodshed in the streets.

Two hours after the inquest opens a special grand jury impaneled for the sole purpose of coping with the evidence brought out at the inquest. The result, it is announced, will be numerous indictments against the rioters and the men "higher up" credited with having incited them to violence.

It is in the outcome of today's action that the city's immediate future depends. If the men who are credited with plotting vengeance against the city administration submit peacefully to court action it is apparent that the present trouble is over. But if the mob leaders look upon the grand jury action and compulsory summons before the coroner's inquest as a fresh offensive act on the part of the city, it is prophesied that even twelve companies of Illinois national guards will have difficulty in suppressing them.

An evidence of the strong probabilities of further violence here was found in the unqualified statement of Mayor Schriver that a repetition of John Looney's newspaper attacks upon him would result in Looney's death. "I told Looney that if he repeated those attacks upon me I would kill him," said Schriver. "I meant it and I mean it now. I think such a move would be for the peace of this community. I am for peace. If Looney comes out of the hospital prepared to act decently no body will be happier than I. But if he don't he can look for me. I mean what I say."

TOO MUCH FOR THEM

Spanish Forces Overcome by Fierce Riff Tribesmen.

The children were playing "barber" and Frances was "next." The razor slipped and cut a long slash in her face that may disfigure her for life.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage, a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Use it and see for yourself how quickly dandruff goes and gray hairs vanish. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agents, Andrews Drug Co.

MINE MULES TO GET A BIT OF FRESH AIR

Even a Mine Strike Not Without Its Compensations.

Mahanoy City, Pa., March 29.—At several of the largest collieries in this section preparations are being made to hoist the mules to the surface, which is an indication that the anthracite operators are preparing for a long period of idleness. A prominent operator said today that the situation was one that evidently could not be worked out in any way except by a test of endurance.

"We simply cannot comply with the demands of the men for increased compensation," he said, "and we will not recognize the union and practically keep its membership, something that its own officers have failed to do, by collecting the union dues at the mines. Under the circumstances what are we to do except close down the mines and practically go out of business for the time being?"

Several independent operators are making preparations to work next week, and their action will likely bring on disorder, as the order of the union will be emphatic on the point that not a pound of coal shall be produced in the region. These independent operators have been enjoying great prosperity for some months, selling coal at big prices in the New York markets, some of them getting as high as $1.50 to $2 per ton over their usual selling price for coal of smaller sizes.

Husband's Initials Also.

The time-honored custom of having the bride's initials only marked on silver that is received as wedding gifts, is giving place to the novel fashion of having the husband's initials also appear in the engraving. This is not really new, but a revival of a custom that has long prevailed in Ireland.

The scheme is to have the initials of the husband's surname used and the initial of the given names of both husband and wife. The three letters may be engraved on the silver in the form of a triangle with the husband's surname letter at the top and the other two letters at the lower corners, with the character "&" between them. Many brides like the idea, and the engravers in the fashionable jewelry stores say they are kept busy making wedding silver in such fashion.
